

SHRINE CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL AND ACADEMY

Vocations Club

General: A group of students who are open to the possibility of becoming a priest, or religious brother or sister. The purpose of the group is so that those who are open to a possible religious vocation later in life, can meet for prayer and fellowship with others of the same openness to a religious vocations.

Times: The club meets before school in the fall and after school in the winter, in room 107.

Current membership: 6

Joining: The club is open to both boys and girls, it is for anyone who is open to the possibility of a future religious vocation.